SINGER/SONGWRITER ANNA WARONKER DELIVERS LONG AWAITED NEW ALBUM

California Fade Scheduled For February 8th Release On Five-Foot-Two Records.

(Hollywood, CA) November 4, 2010: Los Angeles based singer, songwriter, and composer Anna Waronker has finished her first solo album in almost a decade. California Fade, her most personal work to date, is scheduled for a February 8th release on Waronker and Charlotte Caffey's (The Go-Go's) independent label, Five-Foot-Two Records. The album is the product of nearly five years of determination and artistic growth. In addition to her work on California Fade, Waronker has been busy composing for film and television, and recently made her debut as a playwright for the award winning Lovelace: A Rock Opera. "Musically," says Waronker, "there's a whole emotional story for me with this record."

California Fade is a marked departure from Waronker's days as the frontwoman and songwriter of the pop/punk band That Dog and her previous turn as a solo artist, Anna by Anna Waronker. Characterized by lush arrangements and poignant lyrics, California Fade shows an artist evolving. "It was like I was hiding behind a structure of what I thought I did," says Waronker, "I wanted to strip it away."

The title track, "California Fade" goes further in detailing Waronker's uncompromising maturation as an artist. Waronker explains, "'California Fade' is about not giving up and trying to find my own way of doing things." The album also features the haunting and introspective "How Am I Doing," which appeared on the Grey's Anatomy episode, "Desire." The CD version of California Fade will include two bonus tracks, "This Place" and "I Never Want To See Your Face Again." The vinyl release of California Fade will be limited to 500 copies and will include an exclusive, four song EP unavailable anywhere else.

California Fade is written, produced, and performed by Anna Waronker. The album features appearances by Pat Smear (Foo Fighters, The Germs), Josh Klinghoffer (Red Hot Chili Peppers), Steven McDonald (Redd Kross, OFF!), Joey Waronker (Beck, REM, Atoms for Peace), Smokey Hormel (Beck, Johnny Cash), Tanya Haden, Ryan MacMillan, and Gabe Witcher.

California Fade will be available for purchase at iTunes and annawaronker.com this February 8th. U.S. performance dates will be announced on annawaronker.com.
